

The Black-Capped Chickadee - 30-Second – Captioned for the Visually Impaired

MUSIC: "HINTERLAND WHO'S WHO" THEME

SOUND: BLACK-CAPPED CHICKADEE CHIRPING

ANNOUNCER (V.O.):

The black-capped chickadee is one of the most common birds in Canada.

[Black-capped chickadee eating on a tree]

It has an impressive memory where food is concerned, stockpiling reserves and recalling hiding places up to 28 days later.

[Black-capped chickadee eating on a tree]

The chickadee feeds on seeds and bugs, making it a great partner in the garden.

[Black-capped chickadee eating on a tree]

To learn more about the chickadee and how you can help protect Canada's wildlife, visit hww.ca.