

The Leatherback Seaturtle - 30-Second – Captioned for the Visually Impaired

MUSIC: "HINTERLAND WHO'S WHO" THEME

ANNOUNCER (V.O.):

The leatherback seaturtle is the largest reptile in the world. Up to two metres long and weighing as much as 550 kilos, this turtle roams many of the world's oceans in search of its favourite food: jellyfish.

[Turtle swimming with a jellyfish in the mouth]

But this hulking giant may be fighting a losing battle against poaching, fishing gear, and garbage.

[Baby turtles walking towards the ocean]
